8. Repurposing Your Church for Ministry in Today's World Fri. 1:30 – 3:00

BY: Jill White Sponsor: UCC Church Building & Loan Fund

Steele # 009

What's your congregation's mission? What are your congregation's distinctive gifts for ministry? What needs does your community have? In today's world churches must understand their purpose and their "why" in order to be most faithfully effective. A "Repurposing" process can help your church make sure that your mission (your "why"), your assets (people, gifts, and property), and your community's needs are in alignment. This workshop will describe and provide tools for an intentional process that your church can use to help ensure that alignment. Examples will also be shared of how a few UCC congregations transformed their lives, mission and community presence through the use of their buildings and campus.

9. Our Story – God's Story – Paper & Pen Fri. 1:30 – 3:00

BY: Rev. Jim Haun

Steele # 011

The shape of our lives and the shape of God's plan may seem hard to discern, but a few moments with pen and paper can show us a great deal. Through a series of reflective exercises we will be discerning God's call, claim and direction for our lives.

14. The Civil Rights of LGBT Identities at the intersection of “Religious Freedom” Sat. 1:00 – 2:30

BY: Joanne Carroll Sponsor: Trans Advocacy PA; ONA Team Apfelbaum # 318

Today, many on the far right of the political spectrum as well as many within the “Evangelical” Christian community are claiming that the actions to end discrimination against marginalized communities violate their religious freedom. This seminar will provide the attendee with an introduction to the following:

1. What the founders really thought about the formation of our democracy
2. What is the Constitutional background for LGBT equality
3. What laws exist that provide discrimination protections

15. Passing the Plate: Generational Changes in Generosity Sat. 1:00 – 2:30

BY: Rev. Dr. Donna Hale, Rev. Gloria McPherson Isaacs

This workshop opens with a discussion of the role of the church by identifying ways it can connect to the community to address the opioid epidemic. We will also use small groups to learn possible resources and involving the church leaders and community.

17. Resting in God: Rediscovering the Christian Contemplative Tradition Sat. 1:00 – 2:30

BY: Allyssa Boyer Steele # 007

Modern technology promises instant connection, with hundreds of “friends” at our fingertips. But the substance of those connections is often shallow, leaving many of us feeling isolated from others and alienated from God. The spiritual gift of contemplative prayer has been a part of Christian practice in every age, and we may find renewal and reconnection for our time by embracing this type of prayer. Participants will learn a brief historical overview of contemplative Christian prayer, and will learn and participate in three prayer practices: centering prayer, Lectio Divina, and the Daily Examen.

18. Helping Children In Need Sat. 1:00 – 2:30

BY: Lori Weir, Snyder County Children & Youth Services

Steele # 008

Ideas for helping children with food insecurities and other needs. How to reach out to your local agencies and to find out how to help.

19. Congregations Sharing Personnel Sat. 1:00 – 2:30

BY: Bruce Conrad, Bruce Bouchard, Mike Gibbs, David Jones, Fred Marsh

Faylor

This workshop will be of interest to churches who are now or are contemplating sharing staff members with one or more congregations. The specific issues associated with churches sharing staff – pastor, organist, youth leader, secretary, etc. – will be addressed via a panel discussion. The panel will be comprised of folks, both clergy and laypeople, with staff sharing experience. A question and answer session will follow the panel presentation.

20. Supporting the Incarcerated and Formerly Incarcerated Sat. 1:00 – 2:30

BY: Cathy Kenlin

Steele # 009

What can congregations do to balance justice with mercy? How can we support the incarcerated, the formerly incarcerated and their families?

21. BE-ing the church to ALL Sat. 1:00 – 2:30

BY: Paul Fogle, Rick Pulling

Steele # 011

Come and learn how you can make your worship space and programming Accessible 2 All.
